In the middle of May 2016, the 21st Sozialerhebung des Deutschen Studentenwerks begins. This online-survey covers the economic and social situation of students in Germany as it really is. Get involved when we invite you by e-mail and help to improve the conditions for studying in Germany in a targeted way. For you and for others. More information at www.sozialerhebung.de